

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Rev. H. W. King of Cooter was in this Friday.

Rev. R. M. Ownby of Deering was in this Friday.

Good wood and good measure. Ask those who patronized me. Sherman Casey.

Mrs. F. M. Johnson of Terry was shopping in this city Tuesday, and called at the Herald office.

Good girl wanted at once, for general house work. Apply to Mrs. Chas. Spencer. 6th

Mrs. Carrie Baldwin of Kennett came over this week to spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mr. F. A. Mayes.

Mrs. Myrtle Jackson of Buchanan, Tenn., is spending the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Murphy, and other relatives.

Lansing Bettis of Pascola was in this city Tuesday, attending to business in connection with the Pascola Land, Stock & Mercantile Co.

E. S. Berry, commercial manager of our telephone system, was over from Caruthersville Thursday, and informed us that he was having a serious siege of typhoid fever in his home, that his little girl, Mary Alice, three years old, was just recovering, and now his infant son, Edward Henry, was very low. Mr. Berry was suffering from both arms being vaccinated for typhoid.

Mrs. M. P. Gwin paid the Herald office an appreciated call Monday, and while looking about over the office, her mind reverted to the past and she became in a reminiscent mood. Mrs. Gwin informed us that when she was sixteen years old she was one of the compositors on the Democrat, published at Gayoso. That was thirty-nine years ago. At that time Sam Carleton was running the Democrat.

Some grave apprehensions are entertained, in case of an overflow next spring, in the event the old levee above the Dowd crossing caves in, and from present indications, this will probably occur. L. C. Averill went over a few days ago to examine the caving banks, and he informs us that the river banks are now caving into the bar pits of the old levee. It all depends now on the stage of the water from now until spring as to how much the banks will cave.

The hand of retribution hangs over the head of every man who unjustly treats his fellow man. We have lived 47 years, and our experience has taught us that sooner or later the wrong doer will receive his just deserts. For this reason, we stake all we ever expect to be in this world and our hopes for the next upon right and truth. We may meet with some temporary hardships, and suffer great injustice, but by and by we will win. Look about you at those who have been waging this merciless war upon us for the past year, and see if their ranks are not thinning out. How many of them can you count now who are lined up against us who have not felt the hand of retribution dealing them back with measure for measure?

Property For Sale.—The Mrs. Anna Darnall hotel, 12 rooms, small barn and three lots, one block from public square. Price reasonable. See Hayti Herald. 51-4t

Real Estate Sale.

The Hayti Development Company, owning what is known as the New Madrid Banking properties in this city, are now placing their holdings on the market. Matt Conran and George Wiegler came down from New Madrid Monday, to conduct a four day's sale, which includes anything they own, houses and lots and farm property. He is making headquarters at the Citizens Bank of Hayti, and those who want to buy should see him at once. They sell on easy time, and you can almost own your home at the same price you would pay for rent.

We are glad to see this property placed upon the market, because it means a great step forward in the growth of Hayti. In a few months, now, we may expect to see nearly all these vacant lots built up with good homes.

Notice to Pay Taxes.

Notice is hereby given to all persons owing taxes to the City of Hayti that I am now collecting said taxes, and that the prompt payment of same should not be neglected. On January 1, all taxes will become delinquent, and a penalty will be added. I am also collecting delinquent poll tax and other delinquent taxes, and every one is urged to pay promptly.

This October 16, 1913.

One of Nature's Beauty-Spots in Pemiscot County.

A company of jolly hunters and all round good fellows, Frank Worsham, Will Elgin and W. Wyatt of Clarksville and Lee Brown of Elsberry, were here last week. They were accompanied on the hunt by F. M. Perkins, Phelox Bullinger and Ben Phillips. They spent several days camping, and had a royal good time, and, while Newt Maxwell was not in the crowd, they killed a bear just the same. Of course they are truthful men and would not for the world have any one doubt their word, so to convince their friends at home that they did kill a bear, they took the bear home with them.
